Ex. 5 - Deliberative Process

One area where Pruitt's recusal is unclear is in challenges to the Clean Water Rule, which delineates which rivers and streams are subject to Clean Water Act protections.

While Pruitt vowed not to participate in lawsuits challenging the rule in two federal appellate courts, he may still participate in questions currently before the U.S. Supreme Court. Pruitt said Oklahoma was not a party to that challenge, but did file a friend of the court brief on which court is the proper venue to hear lawsuits over the jurisdiction rule.

Pruitt said he would seek a ruling from EPA ethics officials before participating in the Supreme Court proceedings.

"I couldn't tell whether he was saying whether he was still bound by the impartiality agreement or not," Clark said. "I don't think I could tell because he didn't tell us."
